

AMITYVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

INVESTMENT POLICY

I. Scope

This investment policy applies to all moneys and other financial resources available for investment on its own behalf or on behalf of any other entity of individual.

II. Objectives

The primary objectives of the local government's investment activities are, in priority order:

- To conform with all applicable federal, state and other legal requirements (legal);
- To adequately safeguard principal (safety);
- To provide sufficient liquidity to meet all operating requirements (liquidity); and
- To obtain a reasonable rate of return (yield).

III. Delegation of Authority

The Amityville Public Library's responsibility for administration of the investment program is delegated to the Director of the Library who shall establish written procedures for the operation of the investment program consistent with this investment policy. Such procedures shall include an adequate internal control structure to provide a satisfactory level of accountability based on records incorporating description and amounts of investments, the funds for which they are held, the places where kept, transaction dates and other relevant information, they should also describe the activities for key employees involved in this program.

IV Prudence

All participants in the investment process shall seek to act responsibly as custodians of the public trust and shall avoid any transaction that might impair public confidence in the Amityville Public Library to govern effectively.

Investments shall be made with judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation, but for investment, considering the safety of the principal as well as the probable income to be derived.

All participants involved in the investment process shall refrain from personal business activity that could conflict with proper execution of the investment program, or which could impair their ability to make impartial investment decisions.

V. Diversification

It is the policy of the Amityville Public Library to diversify its deposits and investments by financial institution, by investment instrument, and by maturity scheduling.

The Governing board shall establish appropriate limits for the amount of investments which can be made with each financial institution or dealer, and shall evaluate this listing at least annually.

VI. Internal Controls

It is the policy of the Amityville Public Library for all moneys collected by any officer or employee of the government to transfer those funds to the Director of the Library within two (2) banking days of deposit, or within the time period specified in law, whichever is shorter.

The Director of the Library is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that deposits and investments are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly, and are managed in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

VII. Designation of Depositories

The bank and trust companies authorized for the deposit of moneys up to the maximum amounts are:

Depository Name	Maximum Amount	Officer
Citibank, N.A.	$ 750,000.00	Library Director
People's Bank	$2,750,000.00	Library Director
Suffolk County National Bank	$2,750,000.00	Library Director

Other local bank(s) may be added to the list of designated depositories of library funds as recommended by the Library Treasurer or Director and approved at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

VIII. Collateralizing of Deposits

In accordance with the provisions of General Municipal Law, §10, all deposits of Amityville Public Library, including certificates of deposit and special time deposits, in excess of the amount insured under the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act shall be secured by “eligible collateral.” Eligible collateral shall consist of any one, or combination, of the following:

1. A pledge of “eligible securities” with an aggregate “market value” (as provided by GML §10) that is at least equal to the aggregate amount of deposits by the officers. See Appendix A of this policy for a listing of “eligible securities”.
2. A pledge of a pro rate portion of a pool of eligible securities, having in the aggregate a market value at least equal to the aggregate amount of deposits from all such officers within the State at the bank or trust company.
3. An eligible surety bond payable to the government for an amount at least equal to 100% of the aggregate amount of deposits and the agreed upon interest, if any, executed by an insurance company authorized to do business in New York State, whose claims paying ability is rated in the highest rating category by at least two nationally recognized statistical rating organizations. The governing board shall approve the terms and conditions of the surety bond.
4. An eligible “letter of credit”, payable to the Amityville Public Library as security for the payment of 140 percent of the aggregate amount of deposits and the agreed-upon interest, if any. An “eligible letter of credit” shall be an irrevocable letter of credit issued in favor of the Amityville Public Library, for a term not to exceed 90 days by a qualified bank (other than the bank where the secured money is deposited). A qualified bank is either one whose commercial paper and other unsecured short term debt obligations (or, in the case of a bank which is the principal subsidiary of a holding company, whose holding company’s commercial paper and other unsecured short-term deb obligations) are rated in one of the three highest rating categories by at least one nationally recognized statistical rating organization or by a bank that is in compliance with applicable federal minimum risk-based capital requirements.
5. An “irrevocable letter of credit” issued in favor of the government by a federal home loan bank whose commercial paper and other unsecured short-term debt obligations are rated in the highest rating category by at least one nationally recognized statistical rating organization, as security for the payment of 100 percent of the aggregate amount of deposits and the agreed-upon interest, if any.

IX Safekeeping and Collateralization

Eligible securities used for collateralizing deposits shall be held by a third party bank or trust company subject to security and custodial agreements.

The security agreement shall provide that eligible securities are being pledged to secure local government deposits together with agreed upon interest, if any, and any costs or expenses arising out of the collection of such deposits upon default. It shall also provide the conditions under which the securities may be sold, presented for payment, substituted against the pledged securities.

In the event that the securities are not registered or inscribed in the name of the local government, such securities shall be delivered in a form suitable for transfer or with an assignment in blank to the Amityville Public Library or its custodial bank. Whenever eligible securities delivered to the custodial bank or trust company are transferred by entries on the books of a federal reserve bank or other book-entry system operated by a federally regulated entity without physical delivery of the evidence of the obligations, then the records of the custodial bank or trust company shall be required to show, at all times, the interest of the local government in the securities (or the pro rata portion of a pool of eligible securities) as set forth in the security agreement.

The custodial agreement shall provide that pledged securities held by the bank or trust company, or agent of and custodian for, the local government, will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the custodial bank or trust company and will not, in any circumstances, be co-mingled with or become part of the backing for any other deposit or other liabilities. The agreement should also describe that the custodian shall confirm the receipt, substitution or release of the securities. The agreement shall provide for the frequency of revaluation of eligible securities and for the substitution of securities when a change in the rating of a security may cause ineligibility. Such agreement shall include all provisions necessary to provide the local government a perfected interest in the securities.

X. Permitted Investments

As authorized by General Municipal Law, §11, the Amityville Public Library authorizes the Director of the Library to invest moneys not required for immediate expenditure for terms not to exceed its projected cash flow needs in the following types of investments:

- Special time deposit accounts or Certificates of Deposit;
- Obligations of the United States of America;
- Obligations guaranteed by agencies of the United States of America where the payment of principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States of America;

- Obligations of the State of New York.

All investments obligations shall be payable or redeemable at the option of the Amityville Public Library within such times as the proceeds will be needed to meet expenditures for purposes for which the moneys were provided.

XI. Authorized Financial Institutions and Dealers

The Amityville Public Library shall maintain a list of financial institutions and dealers approved for investment purposes and establish appropriate limits to the amount of investments which can be made with each financial institution or dealer. All financial institutions with which the local government conducts business must be credit worthy. Banks shall provide their most recent Consolidated Report of Condition (Call Report) at the request of the Amityville Public Library.

The Director of the Library is responsible for evaluating the financial position and maintaining a list of proposed depositories, trading partners and custodians. Such listing shall be evaluated at least annually.

XII. Purchase of Investments

The Director of the Library is authorized to contract for the purchase of investments:

1. Directly, from an authorized trading partner;
2. By participation in a cooperative investment agreement with other authorized municipal corporations pursuant to Article 5-G of the General Municipal Law and in accordance with Article 3-A of the General Municipal Law.

All purchased obligations, unless registered or inscribed in the name of the local government, shall be purchased through, delivered to and held in the custody of a bank or trust company. Such obligations shall be purchased, sold or presented for redemption or payment by such bank or trust company only in accordance with prior written authorization from the officer authorized to make the investment. All such transactions shall be confirmed in writing to the Amityville Public Library by the bank or trust company.

Any obligation held in the custody of a bank or trust company shall be held pursuant to a written custodial agreement as described in General Municipal Law §10 (3) (a).

The custodial agreement shall provide that securities held by the bank or trust company, as agent of and custodian for Amityville Public Library will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the custodial bank or trust company and will not, in any circumstances, be co-mingled with or become part of the backing for any other deposit or other liabilities. The agreement shall describe how the custodian shall confirm the receipt and release of the securities. Such agreement shall include all provisions necessary to provide the local government a perfected interest in the securities.

XIII. Repurchase Agreements

Repurchase agreements are not authorized under this policy.

XIV. Annual Review and Amendments

The Amityville Public Library shall review this investment policy annually, and it shall have the power to amend this policy at any time.

XV. Definitions

The terms “public funds,” “public deposits,” “bank,” “trust company,” “eligible securities,” eligible surety bond, and “eligible letter of credit” shall have the same meanings as set forth in General Municipal Law Section 10.
